

ACID ETCHED GLASS

Technical Specifications

- Light Transmission, 70-90% (depending on glass type)
- Privacy Level, High, with reduced visibility while maintaining light transmission
- UV Blocking, Up to 98% (depending on glass type)
- Durability, Resistant to scratches and fingerprints
- Maintenance, Easy to clean and maintain

Applications

- Interior partitions
- Doors and windows
- Shower enclosures
- Balustrades and railings
- Facades
- Skylights
- Decorative panels
- Furniture and cabinetry

Materials and Finishes

- Etching Process, Acid etching on one or both surfaces
- Finish, clear, low-iron, tinted, or decorative glass options available to meet design and performance requirements.
- Adhesive Layer, High-strength, UV-resistant bonding agents (if laminated)

Additional Features

- Type I, Single-sided acid etched glass
- Type II, Double-sided acid etched glass
- Type III, Laminated acid etched glass for enhanced safety and security

Warranty

- Limited Warranty, Hals International offers a warranty on systems and materials.